

AFFIRMATION SCRIPTURES

Study and Apply - Part Three

I am a success and not a failure, for I am created in God's image. Therefore, I am worthy of love, I am a delight to God's heart. I am made with a future; His plans for me are good and give me a hope. (Genesis 2:27)

I am worthy for I am the crown of creation, the finishing touch of God's masterpiece. I am his precious handiwork. A chosen people, set apart as a royal priesthood that belongs to God. I have been called out of darkness into his marvelous light. (1 Peter 2:9)

I am strong and covered by God's power. Therefore, I will not walk in weakness for God's grace is sufficient for me, for His power is made perfect in weakness. (2 Corinthians 12:9)

I will be anxious for nothing I will not live under the bondage of fear. The peace of God that passes all understanding, will keep my heart and my mind in Christ. (Philippians 4:6-7)

I am a new creation in Christ; free from the failure and bondage of my past therefore I walk in the newness of life. (2 Corinthians 5:17; Romans 6:4)

I have been given a spirit of power, love, and self-discipline. I have been saved and called (set apart) according to God's doing through His mercy, by the washing of regeneration and by the renewing of the Holy Spirit.. (2 Timothy 1:7, 9; Titus 3:5)

I have a right to come boldly before the throne of God (the throne of grace) to find mercy and find grace in time of need. And I have been made complete in Christ. I belong to Him. (Hebrew 4:16; Colossians 2:10)

I am an expression of the life of Christ because He is my life and I am one of God's living stones, being built up in Christ as a spiritual house. (Colossians 3:4; 1 Peter 2:5P)

I have been established, anointed, and sealed by God in Christ, and I have been given the Holy Spirit as a pledge guaranteeing my inheritance to come. (2 Corinthians 1:21; Ephesians 1:13-14)

I can do all things through Christ for He is my strength and I have been justified—completely forgiven and made righteous because I died with Christ and died to the power of sins' rule over my life. (Philippians 4:13; Romans 5:1; 6:1-6)

I have been given exceedingly great and precious promises by God by which I am a partaker of the divine nature (God's nature). I am chosen of God, holy and dearly loved. (2 Peter 1:4; Colossians 3:12; 1 Thessalonians 1:4)

The Bible is a treasure house of spiritual truths for the believer. The above scriptures are a start on showing you who you really are in Christ since your spiritual birth. They are daily truths to stand upon and build your life upon since you were born into God's family by faith in Christ. I encourage believers to make their personal list of scripture affirmation truths in a notebook and daily read them. Your list will be on going, and there will always be a “Just right” scripture for your every need. Search them out! They help summarize your scriptural identity and position in Christ and form the foundation for your freedom in Christ.

“God is the Perfect Parent” was sent to me via Internet years ago when I was counseling. It has helped parents going through the “teen” years with their children. The simple truth and promises allow us to see beyond our noses and enables us to not make quick judgments, but seek His heart in disciplining our children.

As you read this, keep your heart open and may God’s love and insight give you wisdom and clear understanding. May you walk in His mercy, grace and forgiveness for your children are precious in God’s sight. And so are you! Therefore, as God deals with His children, may we learn from His example.

GOD IS THE PERFECT PARENT

I am loved apart from anything I do or don’t do.

God is always there for me. He is never too busy.

God disciplines me in love because I am his deeply loved child.

God is aware and feels deep compassion for all of my pain, sorrow, and tears.

I belong. As God’s precious child I belong to his family.

God never forgets me, not even for a moment.

God always keeps his promises to me.

I can totally trust God.

God always tells me the truth.

God continually works out all my situations for my good.

God totally understands me.

God delights in me just the way I am.

God’s plans are always to prosper me, not to harm me.

God gently guides me, taking me in His arms and holding me close to his heart.

God does not withdraw His love from me.
