

THE HIGHLAND COO

Prophetic word by Katie Kee at Newcraighall, Scotland
Wellspring House of Prayer meeting–Wednesday July 16, 2008

Can you agree with me that there is a new and deeper level of revival glory anointing being released by the Lord now throughout the nations? God's people are experiencing it and are seeing a greater dimension of God's presence, power and His prophetic flow. It is sweeping across the world; nation after nation through glory revivals. God is calling out to His sons and daughters to come into a deeper, stronger intimate relationship with Him and in those deep, alone times with God, our spiritual ears will hear His voice clearly. Prophetic visions will manifest. Our understanding, wisdom and knowledge will reach higher levels. And the revelatory gifts will move in the spirit man in awesome power as the heavens open. God is pouring out fresh hunger upon our lands. People are receiving tremendous new anointing and mantels.

While visiting Newcraighall, Scotland for a series of Healing Rooms Ministry meetings, our host Tom graciously arranged for an all day tour of the countryside. Yorick, our delightful tour guide, drove Charlotte, my traveling companion, and me first to Robert the Bruce's Monument, then to the William Wallace's Monument, where we had a delightful lunch. The town of Stirling was fun to explore. It fascinated me with its circular winding streets and quaint buildings. The Loch Lomond area was next on our list to visit. We decided we would end the tour by driving through the Highlands and then back to Newcraighall, thus making our loop complete.

Yorick was a wealth of information and to our delight shared the history of Scotland with us. We asked many question and he always seemed to have an answer of sorts. Driving back to Newcraighall, our loop of the countryside almost complete, we were talking about Yorick's Scottish Highland Coos and our American "Long horns" when Charlotte said how wonderful it would be to see a Highland Coo. Yorick said that was not too likely as they were usually deeper in the hills. We watched the countryside for awhile, but no coos. Finally I said, "Lord, please let us see a Highland Coo. Just one will do!" Charlotte and Yorick laughed with me. Then as we continued chatting I felt the Holy Spirit say, "Daughter, look quickly to the left!" I did!

"Charlotte! Look! A Highland Coo!" I shouted. We laughed and praised the Lord for hearing our request and granting our heart's desire.

I was soaring in the Spirit as we chatted, but my thoughts keep returning to the Highland Coo I saw lying in the pasture near the roadside. The coo was massive looking even though it was lying down grazing. Its horns were huge, long and curved upward. I saw him in a blink of the eye and then we were past him, but the picture was burned deep into my mind and heart. I turned to Yorick saying, “The Lord is going to give me a prophetic word regarding Scotland’s Highland Coo.”

“What? What is God telling you Katie?” Yorick excitedly asked. “What’s the word?”

Laughingly I told him that God said He would give me a word; He hadn’t revealed it yet, but He would. Then the Spirit of prayer fell upon us and we started to intercede for Scotland’s youth.

THE HIGHLAND COO PROPHETIC WORD REVEALED:

About 12:45 in the morning as I was praying and seeking the Lord’s will and heart for the meeting that night, I heard the Lord say, “The Highland Coo’s picture is burned into your mind and heart for a purpose daughter. The Highland Coo is symbolic of Scotland’s sons and daughters; therefore, hear My Word and share it with others.”

Here is what the Lord said, “See how My Coo rests, gathering strength as he eats. He looks lazy to the human eye, but beware, for this Highland Coo can arise quick as a wink when he hears the call for battle. I am calling forth and preparing my sons and daughters in Scotland for heavenly battles. And did you see the horns?”

“I did Lord,” I replied.

“One horn”, the Lord said, “Carries My authority. The other horn carries My anointing—a breaker anointing that will smash through barriers in the heavenlies—allowing the Holy Spirit to move mightily. As the Coo opens his mouth, you will hear shouts of praise and worship and My Word come forth in thunderous sounds as it breaks open the atmosphere for the manifest presence of the Lord. And prayers will pour forth from the Coo that will act as battering rams for it is time to help break open the heavenlies over Scotland’s cities—therefore, having regional and national impact.”

I saw the Coo stand up. He was slowly shaking his shaggy head back and forth—side to side—as if listening to something. Suddenly, I heard the words thundering across the skies, ‘VICTORY, VICTORY, VICTORY!’ and I saw a mantle come down from heaven and drape across the Coo's back. He was so powerful looking with his massive, shaggy, tan looking coat and amazing, massive horns. I thought how terrifying those horns would appear, if he was charging toward me, with head moving back and forth in anticipation of battle. This Highland Coo was truly an awesome and beautiful sight to behold, yet I knew that I wouldn't want to meet him in battle—truly a worthy opponent.

“The mantle”, the Lord said, “Is a mantle of power. It will result in a new wave of Hebrews 2:4, which says, “God also bearing witness both with signs and wonders with various miracles and gifts of the Holy Spirit, according to His own will.””

Then I saw steam shooting forth from the Coo's nostrils and it was a prophetic impartation that was like fire; burning deep within the Coo. The Coo was then joined by another Coo, and another Coo, and another Coo and I saw an army forming right before my eyes; each Coo speaking the Word with great intensity and ministering with great authority and power. I saw the Coos moving, in unity as one, into masses of people who began turning—listening—taking notice of the Word and the anointing—I knew lives were changing.

As the Coos began to speak; the masses listened. I saw the Lord releasing fresh anointing upon anointing, and I thought of the Day of Pentecost, as the releasing of signs, wonders and healing were happening in the mighty name of Jesus, and an explosion, a Holy Ghost explosion, was taking place. The Coos were moving in Holy Spirit boldness and greater power. There was an atmosphere of anticipation and expectation—the air is literally charged with the presence of the Lord.

“Sons and daughters of Scotland”, the Lord is saying, “The sounds of breakthrough has now come that will bring Holy Spirit breakout—the heavens are opening up and a mighty outpouring of fire—fire—fire will cover you!” For the hearts and lives of the Scottish people must be clean and open before Him as they step into a time of great power and the prevailing Word of God.” The Lord went on to say, “Sons and daughters of Scotland plug into the living Word and the anointing, to see the fullness of My Holy Spirit released in great power into the Body of Scottish Christians. Plug in, let the lightning fires of God strike forth from you and ignite others as the prophetic Word of the Lord goes forth. The Word will literally thunder across the waters, as the Lord thunders; it will break down the resistance of darkness—the enemy will flee! Melt your heart's together as one—My favor you will see.”

Hear God's thunder; He is speaking to the hearts of the Scottish people. Hear the roar of the Lion of Judah—you are in a time of great transition, you will lay a course for thousands upon thousands to experience victory in your Lord, for your heritage is rich—it is one of great sacrifices, bravery and contending against opposition from all sides and yet your hearts fail not! Stouthearted, you are and in your obedience, the Kingdom of God will be glorified.

Lion hearts of Scotland, rise up! Come forth! Generations, old and young alike, come forth as one, for there is work to be done! Release the great wealth of God's kingdom into your lands, take out the stones, and lift up God's banner for the cause of your people.
