

BACKGROUND INFO: Prior to my trip to the village of Newcastlehall, Scotland in 2008 for the Healing Rooms Ministries, I started exploring my Scottish heritage. It was exciting and a totally new revelation for me, as I learned about my ancestors. I now understand why my heart was so drawn toward Scotland/Ireland. During the two week visit, my Scottish brothers and sisters totally won my heart, and I have been in contact and interceding for them ever since. While there, as I toured parts of Scotland, God gave me the incredible vision of the Highland Coo which you can read on the Travel Page. Should God ever decided to move me to Scotland, well, I just have one thing to say, my heart is open and my suitcases packed!

I felt God's release to share the visions He has given me over the years for different people regarding Scotland, so I am adding them to the web site under the Travel page. For you who enjoy the prophetic and have a love and a heart for Scotland/Ireland as I do, may you be blessed and inspired to join me and other believers around the world to intercede for these two countries.

God is moving! He is blessing and honoring our Scottish and Irish brothers and sisters who have remained faithful to believe for the darkness to lift over their countries and for the people to walk in the freedom and love of Jesus Christ. They are standing steadfast in the calling, dreams, goals and destiny for their beloved country and changes are happening. Amen!

THE HOURGLASS VISION
For Gavin Broomhall & Scotland
February 18, 2010

Gavin Broomhall , from Scotland, requested the Grace Extending intercessors to pray for his visit to the Scottish Parliament on February 24th, as he would be there for the day interceding for Scotland. This vision is in response to his request.

As I am writing this, the Lord gave me a revelatory answer to a vision I kept seeing for over a month and a half, but had no understanding of what it meant or who it was for. I asked my prayer partners to join me in seeking the heart and will of God, as to the meaning of the vision and who it was for! All God revealed in the vision over a month ago was a picture of the hourglass and a hand turning it over and over. BUT today, as I was finishing this email...

I saw a man sitting at a table with a Bible that lay open before him. Tears were streaming down his cheeks and he was sobbing so hard that his body was shaking violently. I sensed he had gone through deep confession and repenting so that his heart would be clean and open before his God. He moved from the table and lay prostrate on the floor and entered into deep intercession. As I watched him I felt the intercessor's heart within me being tugged, stirred up and I longed to join him; I knew something important was about to happen. I knew then that the man was Gavin. God's timing is always so perfect. This email and Gavin's trip had to come first before God could reveal the rest of the vision to me.

Then I saw the gigantic hourglass encased in a brilliant light that extended many feet beyond it, appear just slightly in front of Gavin's head. Sitting up, he opened his eyes several moments later and saw it. Then a hand, which I knew was the Lords, reached out and took a hold of the hourglass, as it was almost ready to run out, and he turned it upside down. I saw this happen several times, the turning of the hourglass. I felt that God was revealing the minds of some people, who think that Scotland's time has run out, but the hourglass speaks differently; it is just beginning; the prayer warriors are lining up for marching orders, for the time is and always will be the Lords.

Believers are coming alive under the calling forth of the Holy Spirit, and the Body of Christ in Scotland is and will come together. The darkness over the land will be broken and brothers will reunite with brothers and families will be restored for the glory of God. God is calling forth the hearts of the sons and daughters of Scotland along with many nations to intercede for Scotland. My heart was singing. Then I looked at Gavin and he had his head leaning to one side as if listening intently to someone. I saw the tension leave his body and his face and body relaxed. He was being given answers, direction and I knew that God was revealing why he was there praying at the Scottish Parliament. I felt he would be given even more understanding on the purpose of the hourglass; it would come in God's timing.

Then I saw the forms of men and women silently swept into the room where Gavin was still kneeling and praying; the anointing prayer power was awesome. It was so tangible that I felt if I reached out I could actually touch the prayers as they ascended to the heavens. Gavin was not alone; God was sending His army. The room filled with kneeling bodies all intent on fulfilling their purpose for being there--PRAYER!

Many intercessors had come before Gavin and laid up prayer covering and many would come after him, but they all were as one and would so continue until God's work was done! Their voices rose and fell in unison as though connected to a heavenly symphony. I knew I was witnessing the powerful and wonderful presence of God.

And I heard, "The heavens are splitting! Help is racing through."
